Press release prepared by: Lieutenant Ryan Johansen

On Wednesday, April 24, 2019, at about 10:00 a.m., San Bruno Police Detectives arrested 45-year-old Maria Delosreyes for charges related to human trafficking. Delosreyes was implicated in a complex human trafficking investigation that was initiated in 2016. This investigation revealed that Delosreyes and her husband brought the female victim into the United States from another country and essentially forced her into unreasonable servitude with little to no compensation under the threat of deportation and other consequences for her family abroad. Shortly after this situation was reported to our department in 2016, Delosreyes and her husband fled the country. Our Detectives recently established information that Delosreyes had returned to the United States, approximately two years after this investigation began. Detectives were able to confirm this information, secure a warrant for her arrest and take her into custody without incident. Delosreyes' husband remains outstanding and is believed to be in the Philippines. Photos of Delosreyes and her husband are attached to this press release.

Anyone with any information related to these cases is urged to contact the San Bruno Police Department at (650) 616-7100 or by email: sbpdtipline@sanbruno.ca.gov. Information can be left anonymously.
